

Employee Referral System

Produce high-quality candidates faster, more cost effectively

Employee referrals are one of the most productive candidate sourcing channels. With Vangent’s Employee Referral System, a module of V-TAS Enterprise, you can quickly and easily enable your organization to leverage this critical channel.

Organizations with successful referral programs realize many key benefits including:

- ◆ Lower recruiting costs
By as much as 50%
- ◆ Increased speed to hire
Employees serve as a first filter and more often refer candidates who are ready to make a job change
- ◆ Improved interview to conversion rate
Referred candidates are more frequently knowledgeable about the organization and the job
- ◆ Better quality hires
Employees are less likely to refer incompatible or unqualified candidates

Successful employee referral programs entail more than just enticing incentives; they require an efficient means to administer the program. Vangent’s Employee Referral System enables your organization to:

- ◆ Engage employees and get buy-in for the program
Employees can easily submit candidates and track referrals through the complete hiring process
- ◆ Tailor a program to achieve your objectives
Rewards can be provided at your designated milestones (e.g. candidate interview, offer, hiring)
- ◆ Track when rewards are due and paid
The administration process is streamlined assuring accuracy and quality
